

Children's Chorus To Present Christmas Concerts on TV 2

The Inland Children's Chorus will appear two times on WLW-D, Channel 2, television during the Christmas weekend as the feature of the Johnny Gilbert Christmas Show. First, they will be seen on Christmas Eve (Friday, Dec. 24) starting at 6:30 p.m. The show will be repeated on Christmas Day (Saturday, Dec. 25) at 12 noon.

The program is sponsored by Dayton's four General Motors Divisions and will be taped earlier for holiday viewing.

The Johnny Gilbert Show is one of Dayton's most popular programs. The prime television time will afford the Dayton community an opportunity to see and hear the unique 100-voice children's group now entering its 30th year.

Both sacred and popular Christmas music will be featured. Joseph P. Geiger will direct. James A. Will is the accompanist.

Insert from page 7

THE INLANDER

December 17, 1965

Don't Forget . . .

. . . to see the Children's Chorus on TV: WLW-D, Channel 2, Friday, Dec. 24, at 6:30 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 25, at noon on the Johnny Gilbert Show.

James Will New Chorus Accompanist

James A. Will, organist-choirmaster at Precious Blood Church for the past 7-1/2 years and until recently organist-choirmaster at Our Lady of Rosary Church for 10-1/2 years, made his initial appearance as Inland Children's Chorus accompanist at last week's Christmas Concert.

He is a native Daytonian and was graduated from Chaminade

James Will
Gregorian Institute of America.

High School in 1941. He attended the University of Dayton, the Catholic University of America, and holds a choirmasters' certificate from the

Mr. Will has been organist-choirmaster in churches in Dayton, Cincinnati, Toledo and Springfield for the past 24 years. He also played in the U. S. Army Signal Corps and U. S. Air Force bands while a member of the armed services.

In Dayton, he has played first and second trumpet for the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra and the Municipal Band. He has also played for the Springfield, Mo., Civic Symphony and the Arkansas State Symphony.

He and his wife are the parents of two children.