

Sees Renewal Of Hopes For Big Coronation

Edward VIII abdicated last week, it began to be felt that the coronation of his successor will be rich in the public glamour, as the people might remember the coronation of the late King's accession. This feeling is beginning to be dispelled, and there are signs that interest in the ceremony is being stimulated once more. The original date is out of the door, but it will still be a good show.

Inland Expects 12,000 Guests

Employees of the Inland Manufacturing Co. and their families will take part Sunday in the annual Christmas party in Memorial hall, sponsored by the company and the Inland Employees' association.

It is estimated that approximately 12,000 children and adults will attend the three parties which will be given: One at 12:00 noon, one at 3:00 p. m. and the last party at 7:00 p. m.

Featuring the program this year will be the Inland Children's chorus, a group of 80 boys and girls organized and trained specially for this occasion by Richard Westbrook, Dayton choirmaster. This group will sing a series of Christmas selections, accompanied by Mrs. Carl Lienesch at the piano and by Urban Deeger on an electric organ.

Musical selections on the program will also be given by Harry Kalb's orchestra and a special children's movie will be shown. W. S. Whittaker, president and general manager of the company, will give a brief talk previous to the appearance of Santa Claus, who will present the kiddies with toys, candy and pop corn.

Admittance to the parties will be by ticket only and for the party as specified.

The following committee is in charge of the party: William Christensen, M. A. Lause, Philip Asbury, G. D. McLaughlin, H. V. Stevens, Ben Finke, T. W. Jones, J. V. Cuni, M. B. Gordon, L. C. Snyder and U. L. Moler.
