

December 23, 1951
The Dayton Daily News

Children's Chorus On Network Program

The Inland Manufacturing children's chorus will be heard over the ABC radio network in a national broadcast at 8:30 a. m. Monday.

Christmas carols by the group will be part of the Henry J. Taylor program.

Richard Westbrook is the director of the group which was organized 15 years ago for sons and daughters of the employes of Inland division of General Motors Corp.

Other newspapers reporting on this broadcast as listed in Newspapers.com: The Akron Beacon Journal (Ohio), The Dispatch (Moline, Illinois), Wisconsin State Journal (Madison, Wisc)

PAGE EIGHT

Air
Lines

By DORIS ATTERBURY

One of the featured Christmas programs on WTJS this year will be a re-broadcast of the 25th annual First Presbyterian Church Musical. This outstanding musical program is a traditional favorite in Jackson, and this year there has been such wide-spread demand for another air performance that WTJS has scheduled it for Christmas Night from 7:00 to 8:00 p. m. This program composed of excerpts from "The Messiah" will be one of the highlights of the entire three-day Christmas program schedule.

Joy to the world through the talented and charming massed voices of the one hundred boys and girls of the famed Inland Children's Chorus with noted ABC news analyst and commentator Henry J. Taylor doing the narration, will be heard as a special Christmas Eve feature of the YOUR LAND AND MINE program, Monday from 7:00 to 7:15 p. m. over WTJS and the ABC network.

December 23, 1951
The Jackson Sun (Tenn)

The Christmas concert by the 50 boys and 50 girls of the Inland Children's Chorus, under the direction of Richard Westbrook, will replace Henry J. Taylor's news commentary on this date only, the news analyst making his program available to the musical organization. The youngsters making up the noted chorus in Dayton, Ohio, from one of the really unique organizations of its type in the country. The youthful voices, ranging in age from 8 to 11 years old, are all children of employes of General Motors Corporation.

Organized twelve years ago under the baton of Richard Westbrook, a noted professional musical conductor, the Inland Children's Chorus has become a traditional entertainment offering in and around Dayton, and other major cities.