

INLAND CHORUS REHEARSES FOR CONCERT

The Inland Children's chorus will make its 16th appearance with the Dayton Philharmonic orchestra Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. at Memorial hall. The 100 singers, some of whom are shown here with their director, Joseph P. Geiger, will appear in Eton suits and Alice blue gowns. The chorus is made up of children from the families of Inland

Manufacturing division employees. With the orchestra the chorus will sing Tom Scott's transcription of 'Twas the Night Before Christmas and a group of traditional carols. Paul Katz will conduct the orchestra in the Schumann Second symphony, Respighi's Pines of Rome and the overture to Menotti's Amelia Goes to the Ball.
