THE CHORUS HAD A PICNIC

One hundred and fifty youngsters cast aside their Eton suits and bow ties, their Alice Blue gowns and dainty hair ribbons, at least for one day, Thursday, July 11.

The Inland Children's Chorus was at play, holding their annual picnic at LeSourdsville.

Three chartered buses carried the youngsters to the amusement park and from their arrival at 10 a.m. until departure at 4 p.m. they set a pace that is only for boys and girls, 8 to 16 years of age.

There were two hours of games followed by lunch in the Park Dining Room. Then the 150 children had the "run" of the Midway with its thrilling rides, miniature golf, motor boats and other attractions.

Refreshments were welcome at 3:15 p.m., as the pace slowed, and by 4 p.m. even this energetic group was ready for the trip home.
