Nicholson, Leschansky Assigned New Duties in Mfg. Division

Earl R. Nicholson and Edward J. Leschansky, General Foremen for the Manufacturing Division, have received new and additional assignments.

Moves affecting these men are two of several announced by H. E. Messler, Assistant Factory Manager.

Nicholson has been named General Foreman of Dept. 16, Friction Material, and Dept. 27, Cement and Paint Mixing. He had been in charge of Dept. 35, Plastic Cap. Leschansky, who is General Foreman of Dept. 8, Plastics, has taken over the duties of General Foreman of Dept. 35, in addition to his present responsibilities.

In connection with the above moves, Earl A. Gallimore has been transferred as a foreman from Dept. 8 to Dept. 35.

Dale S. Bazill, formerly a foreman for Dept. 2, has been transferred to a similar position in Dept. 16.

Also in the Manufacturing Division, the following have been assigned new foremen's duties: D. L. Sheldon has moved from Dept. 26 to Dept. 3; Clive E. Nicely from Dept. 91 to Dept. 92 and T. O. Wood from Dept. 1 to Dept. 92.

Three Changes Made In Inspection Dept.

O. L. Simmons, Chief Inspector, has announced changes affecting three members of supervision in the Inspection Dept.

The new appointments are already in effect.

Glendon Perry has been assigned as Factory Representative to Fisher Body.

Earl Millikin has been transferred from Dept. 4 to Dept. 91, where he replaces Perry.

John Eidemiller has assumed the responsibility for Dept. 4 in addition to his duties at Bldg. 50.
