

INLAND CHILDREN

Young Choristers To Sing Swan Song

The largest number of "graduates" with a total of 200 years of singing with the Inland Children's chorus will take part in their last concert Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Memorial hall

Thirty-two youngsters reaching the automatic "retirement" age of 16 will be given certificates by Harold I. Newsome, personnel director, during intermission.

The concert by the choir, now in its 30th year, will be presented for Inland Manufacturing division employes and their families. The children are all members of employe families.

New members are auditioned each fall. Children must be at least eight years old at the time.

THE PROGRAM Tuesday under the direction of Joseph Geiger will be based on the theme, "Vacation Time USA."
