

The Junior Chorus joined the Concert Chorus in the Spring Festival's second half for a camp fire songfest specialty.

Chorus Places Spring in Air

The Robert Chappie family's Chorus alumni increased by one when daughter Carol graduated. Top, from left, Judith, 19, (1965); Mr. and Mrs. Chappie; Karen, 17, (1966). Bottom, Christie, 10; this year's graduate Carol, 16, and Deborah, 11, who along with Christie is now in her second Chorus year.

The Inland Children's Chorus made spring a reality May 14 when happy tunes pleased a responsive audience. It was the annual Spring Festival at Memorial Hall and the Chorus, under the direction of Joseph P. Geiger and the accompaniment of James A. Will, performed exceptionally well.

The recognition of 13 Chorus graduates marked the intermission, with General Manager T. O. Mathues and Director of Personnel H. I. Newsome distributing the diplomas.

Chorus members will be entertained at a picnic at the Inland Activities Center on June 12.
