Inland Chorus To Sing Twice At Institute

THE Inland Children's chorus under the direction of Richard Westbrook will appear in two performances today at the Dayton Art Institute. The programs, for which Herbert S. Nonneman is chairman, will be presented at 2 and 4 p. m.

The children's chorus, accompanied by Mary Werner MacCash and Isabel Herbst, will appear in a program that will feature excerpts from the Seven Last Words of Christ by Dubois.

In addition to the Lenten cantata, the children will sing In a Monastery Garden by Katelby, Stout-Hearted Men and Deep in My Heart from Sigmund Romberg operettas, and Nevin's Wynken, Blynken and Nod.

The chorus of children is sponsored by the Inland division of General Motors.

Hosts for the programs will be Mr. and Mrs. J. D. O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Battelle.
