

Boy Soprano To Take Part In Celebration

1923

Richard Westbrook 16, son of Undertaker Ben Westbrook, will sing next Thursday night at Keith's Strand theater, in connection with the celebration of Keith's third-of-a-century anniversary.

The boy has received many compliments upon his beautiful, soprano voice and his clear enunciation. He has already made a Genett record.

He is a member of the Choral Art society of St. Marys church. He received his training under Prof. J. J. Fehring.
