O LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM

O little town of Bethlehem! How still we see thee lie ;
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep, The silent stars go by ;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth, The everlasting Light ;
The hopes and fears of all the years, Are met in thee tonight.

JINGLE BELLS

Jingle bells! Jingle bells! Jingle all the way!
Oh! what fun it is to ride in a one-horse open sleigh!
Jingle bells! Jingle bells! Jingle all the way!
Oh! what fun it is to ride in a one-horse open sleigh!

Sees Renewal Of Hopes For Big Coronation

Edward VIII abstained last week, it began to be felt that the coronation of his successor will be rich in the public glories, and that the tragedy drama of the coronation of the new king's accession. This feeling is beginning to be dispelled, and there are signs that interest in the ceremony is being stimulated once more. The original date is not the date, but it will still be a good show.

50 Year Members of Knights Templar Guests at Dinner

That both Princess Elizabeth and her sister, Margaret, will take part in some of the coronation ceremonies is a possibility. It has not yet been announced whether the king will be crowned in England, and Princess Elizabeth is expected to be becoming one of the most popular children in the world, in fact, it already is. It is in this country that the little princess and Shirley Temple are getting acquainted in the playground.

Wives particularly are anticipating with pleasure the prospect of a coronation with a queen and princess. The quiet charm of the new Queen Elizabeth's dress has been widely felt in England, and Princess Elizabeth is expected to be becoming one of the most popular children in the world, in fact, it already is. It is in this country that the little princess and Shirley Temple are getting acquainted in the playground.

Inland Expects 12,000 Guests

Employees of the Inland Manufacturing Co. and their families will take part Sunday in the annual Christmas party in Memorial hall, sponsored by the company and the Inland Employees' association.

It is estimated that approximately 12,000 children and adults will attend the three parties which will be given: One at 12:00 noon, one at 3:00 p. m. and the last party at 7:00 p. m.

Featuring the program this year will be the Inland Children's chorus, a group of 80 boys and girls organized and trained specially for this occasion by Richard Westbrook, Dayton choirmaster. This group will sing a series of Christmas selections, accompanied by Mrs. Carl Lienesch at the piano and by Urban Deeger on an electric organ.

Musical selections on the program will also be given by Harry Kalb's orchestra and a special children's movie will be shown. W. S. Whittaker, president and general manager of the company, will give a brief talk previous to the appearance of Santa Claus, who will present the kiddies with toys, candy and pop corn.

Admittance to the parties will be by ticket only and for the party is specified.

The following committee is in charge of the party: William Christensen, M. A. Lause, Philip Asbury, G. D. McLaughlin, H. V. Stevens, Ben Finke, T. W. Jones, J. V. Cuni, M. B. Gordon, L. C. Snyder and U. L. Moler.
