THE INLAND CHILDREN'S CHORUS

The Inland Children's Chorus has been performing in the Spring Concert Series sponsored by the Chamber and the Art Institute since 1943.

The group was first formed in 1936, as an outgrowth of Inland's Christmas parties at which talented employees or their children were invited to perform.

The purpose of the chorus is:

1. To give the children of Inland employees a musical education and an appreciation of good music; and,
2. To make a worthwhile contribution to the cultural life of Inland employees and the community.

There are 100 voices in the Children's Chorus Concert Group, 50 boys and 50 girls. An additional 80 boys and girls act as chorus understudies. Approximately 1,600 children have sung in the chorus since it was founded.

It was directed by Richard Westbrook until his death in 1955. He was succeeded by Joseph P. Geiger, who is well-known in Dayton for his work with young people and children.

SERIES SPONSORSHIP

This series of concerts is a project of the Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce Music Committee under the chairmanship of William R. Wheatley, Jr. The concerts are arranged by Mr. Wheatley and members of the Music Committee, and are presented in co-operation with the Dayton Art Institute. The Chamber wishes to thank Kathryn Pinkney, Publicity Director of the Institute, for her fine co-operation in the arrangement of this series.

DOUBLE SCHEDULE

Inland Children To Give Concert

The Inland Children's chorus today will present two performances at the Dayton Art Institute. The concerts, sponsored jointly by the Institute and the Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce, will begin at 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.

The 100 young singers—none is older than 16—will be under the direction of Joseph P. Geiger. Paul Ray Jones will serve as pianist for the program.

The program, 15th annual such appearance at the Art Institute, will feature Wilson's arrangement of the spiritual, Were You There; Britten's All People That on Earth Do Dwell; excerpts from Rodgers' The King and I; Moeller's The Happy Wanderer and Steel's America, Our Heritage.

THE CHORUS was organized in 1936 by the late Richard Westbrook as an educational and recreational project for children of employees of the Inland division of General Motors Corp.
