This series of concerts is a project of the Dayton Art Institute in cooperation with the Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber wishes to thank Kathryn Pinkney, Publicity Director of the Institute for the arrangement of this fine series.

N E X T W E E K

On February 26, 1967 the concert presentation will be the Dayton Men Singers, Herbert Jones, Director.

100 Youths Will Sing

THE one hundred young singers of the Inland children's chorus will present two identical concerts today at the Dayton Art Institute to accommodate an expected large crowd. The youngsters' appearance is a traditional highlight of the institute's winter music season.

The program is part of the free music series sponsored by the Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce and the Art Institute.

Joseph P. Geiger, chorus director, has programmed music ranging from sacred anthems to popular tunes.

Included are Schubert's Ave Maria, Orlando di Lasso's Echo Song, excerpts from Rodgers' Sound of Music, Denza's a Merry Heart, and Jacobs' This Is My Country.
